

Aaron Copland

Letter from Home

The Official Publication of Copland House

Vol. XII - No. 1

OUT AND AROUND

1. Music from Copland House performed at Merestead, a historic mansion and county park in Westchester County (NY), at an event in December co-hosted by Copland House and Westchester County. Shown in photo (left to right) are County Parks Commissioner Joseph A. Stout, Copland House Artistic and Executive Director Michael Boriskin, and County Executive Andrew Spano.

2. Former Copland House resident Lisa DeSpain spent several sessions working on musical composition

3. Board Secretary Daniel Levey addressing the audience after receiving a statuette marking the posthumous induction this fall of Aaron Copland into the Long Island Music Hall of Fame.

...sic film series this fall, which was launched with a screening of Ben Niles' Note by Note, about the making of a Steinway piano. The film was followed by a live performance by Michael Boriskin on the piano built in the film, and a Q&A before a capacity audience. (Boriskin and Niles in photo.)